SENATOR VENDITTE: Point of order, Mr. President.

SENATOR BARNETT: State your point.

SENATOR VENDITTE: Mr. President, are we following the agenda that has been set forth here this afternoon? If we are, we're going over the time limit on all items on the agenda.

SENATOR BARNETT: Your point is well taken, Senator Venditte. I do not see it on the Speaker's list. As far as I'm concerned if there are no more rule changes, number nine is over with and we'll go onto the next item of business. Senator Carsten, your light is on, please. There is nothing before us at this time, except for the next issue.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President, then I'm going to speak on a point of personal privilege.

SENATOR BARNETT: State your point.

SENATOR CARSTEN: There is a proposed rule change that I have offered. As I understand, and here again I address myself to Senator Luedtke, the rule change deals with the introduction of bills. Through you, Mr. Speaker, then I would ask you what the procedure would be? As I understand there has to be...943 has to come up with it. Is that correct?

SENATOR BARNETT: Senator Luedtke, I think you better handle that question and answer for Senator Carsten.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Now you mean that there is a rule change that is supposed to be before this body, Senator Carsten?

SENATOR CARSTEN: Yes, Speaker Luedtke. I have a proposed rule change on bill introductions.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: All right. Did the Chairman of the Rules Committee present it to us today?

SENATOR CARSTEN: I do not believe that.... Senator DeCamp.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Well I only put what is before the body. I don't have any idea whether it's there or not.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Well, Mr. Speaker, if I may continue, Mr. President, excuse me, sir.

SENATOR BARNETT: I liked the other better. That's all right.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President, this rule was discussed in committee. It was moved to vote it out. Now maybe Senator DeCamp had better make an explanation if that is in order, Mr. Speaker.

SENATOR BARNETT: I think for the purposes of this discussion, I think it would be. But it shouldn't be taken up because they did not report it out. If this is the time to discuss it, Senator DeCamp, can you answer this in a couple minutes and then we'll have that problem solved.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Okay. Correct me if I'm wrong, Senator Kelly, or Senator Mills, or Senator Newell. We didn't vote it out. What we agreed we were going to go around, all of
